

THIRD STATE TICKET MAY CAUSE A FIGHT

LIVELY TIME PREDICTED AT BULL MOOSE CONVENTION AT MILWAUKEE TOMORROW.

M'GOVERN ON FENCE

Should Present Republican Candidate Endorse Roosevelt Progressives Would Rally to His Support.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 10.—Called primarily for the purpose of nominating presidential electors there promises to be a lively time at the state convention of the progressive party, because of the determination on the part of some of the delegates that a state ticket shall be named.

County Chairman F. E. Davidson, Chas. K. Lush and others are in favor of naming a state ticket from top to bottom. They argue that unless this plan is carried out the party will have no regular representation with which to go before the people two years hence.

On the other hand provisional state chairman M. S. Baker, Colonel John Hicks, of Oshkosh, W. P. Bloodgood and others would wind up the work of the convention with the selection of presidential electors.

While Governor Francis E. McGovern has not come right out in a public manner to the side of the Roosevelt followers those opposed to placing the state ticket in the field say they are satisfied that McGovern is with them.

McGovern is between two fires. If he announces himself in favor of the progressive party, the Taft leaders will get busy and frame up a plan to defeat him and should he announce himself in support of the republican national convention, the Roosevelt leaders will surely place a state ticket in the field.

The plan of the progressive convention for tomorrow as now formulated is for the calling of the convention to order at once by provisional state chairman Baker to be followed by a motion that the temporary organization be made permanent at once and that Wheeler P. Bloodgood be elected chairman of the convention.

The program calls for the delivery of the key note speech by Wheeler P. Bloodgood and this part of the program will be carried out.

Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California, running mate of Theodore Roosevelt on the national progressive ticket is to make two addresses at the convention, one in the afternoon and the principal effort at the evening session. Others who are expected to be here for the convention and are scheduled for speeches are McGinn McCornick and United States Senator Philip C. Barlow.

Green Bay, Sept. 10.—A meeting of the supporters of the Bull Moose party at DeFries' hall yesterday afternoon six delegates were named to attend the state convention at Milwaukee tomorrow. It was announced that another meeting will be held tonight to elect ten more delegates. The reason for not finishing the business yesterday is that the third party people want to get men they can depend upon to go to the convention.

OPEN PREPARATORY ACADEMY FOR POLISH-AMERICAN YOUTH

Cambridge Springs, Pa., Sept. 10.—The National Polish Preparatory Academy, the first national school in America intended solely for the education of young Polish-Americans, was opened to the reception of students today. The new institution is a project of the National Polish Alliance, which has 80,000 members among the leading Polish citizens of the United States. The school opens with students enrolled from New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Michigan and several other states.

TO DEDICATE $150,000 HOSPITAL AT MADISON

Madison, Wis., Sept. 10.—A five-story, $150,000 St. Mary's hospital will be dedicated here on Wednesday. The citizens of Madison have contributed for the erection of this structure and the remaining amount has been donated by the Sisters of Mary. Archbishop Sebastian G. Messmer of Milwaukee will dedicate the building.

ARKANSAS COTTON MEN TO FORM ASSOCIATION

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 10.—Representatives of the cotton industry in Arkansas met here today to organize a state association for the protection of their mutual interests. One of the principal aims of the association will be to bring about the repeal of the anti-future dealing law which is declared to be seriously interfering with the cotton business in Arkansas and subjecting the planters and buyers to an unnecessary loss of both time and money.

ITALIAN FLEET BOMBARDS ASIATIC TURKEY SEAPORT

London, Eng., Sept. 10.—The Italian fleet bombarded Scalanova, a seaport in the vicinity of Smyra, Asiatic Turkey, according to a dispatch received in London today by a news agency.

INCREASED DEMAND FOR STEEL PRODUCTS SHOWN

New York, Sept. 10.—The unaltered tonnage of the United States steel corporation on August 31, totaled 616,275 tons, as compared with 5,957,079 tons on July 31.

REPUBLICANS CARRY MAINE BY DECISIVE PLURALITY MONDAY

Elect Governor, Three Congressmen And Majority in State Legislature in Overthrow of Democrats.

Portland, Maine, Sept. 10.—The political over-turn in the Maine state election yesterday in which the republicans won back the governorship, won three of the four congressmen and a substantial majority on the joint ballot in the legislature, and the victory of the republicans becomes more apparent today with revised and additional returns.

William T. Haines, of Waterville, republican, was elected governor by a plurality of 3,057 over Governor Frederick W. Plaisted, democratic candidate of Augusta, Maine. The vote with twenty-eight towns missing was: Haines, republican, 70,072; Plaisted, democrat 66,515.

Two years ago the vote for governor Burke M. Fernald, republican was 64,672; F. W. Plaisted, democrat, 73,425. The missing twenty-eight towns two years ago cast 751 votes for republican candidates and 846 for democratic candidates.

Congressman A. C. Hinds, first district, and Frank E. Guernsey, fourth district, republicans, were re-elected by an increased majority and Forest Goodwin, republican, supplanted Congressman Samuel E. Gould, democrat, in the third district. Congressman D. W. Mac Gillicuddy was re-elected in the second.

The new legislature will stand on the joint ballot, 94 republicans, 78 democrats, with ten districts yet to report. The state senate will be made up of twenty-two republicans and eight democrats.

The House will be composed of 73 republicans and 60 democrats with nine districts missing. This majority will be sufficient to elect former congressman Edwin C. Burleigh of Augusta, as United States senator in place of Senator O. B. Gardner, who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator William Frye, republican.

Political observers were in some doubt as to the effect the republican victory would have and the attitude of the progressive leaders regarding the national election in November. All of the progressive leaders were actively lined up with the republican party in yesterday's election.

Waltersville, Maine, Sept. 10.—Chairman Warren C. Prillbrook of the republican committee, gave out the following statement early today regarding the state election.

"My prophecy of a comfortable margin has been realized. We have elected a governor, three congressmen, and a majority of both houses of the legislature. We shall secure the election of former Congressman Burleigh to the United States Senate, and the entire control of the state government for the next two years will be in the hands of the republicans."

Taft Greatly Pleased. Beverly, Mass., Sept. 10.—President Taft was greatly pleased with the republican victory in Maine. It was the best political news the president's friends said today that he had heard since he entered the White House. The president was so interested in the bulletin that he remained up until an early hour this morning to receive returns.

He was particularly cheerful when he learned that the Maine legislature will be republican on joint ballot, assuring his party of another victory in the United States Senate. Having read the latest returns and breakfasted today, the president started for Myopia and the golf links.

Mrs. Taft and the Taft children were just as happy over the news as was the president. The Taft did not retire until 8 o'clock, while Robert and Charles, the Taft boys, stayed up with their father. Although the president had no statement to make about the Maine result, his friends here were not so reticent.

Will Have Effect. They found much cheer in it and were sanguine of the effect in other states. According to their views the result will serve to keep in line many republicans who were wavering towards the progressives. It will be an example they say to the doubtful ones of what can be accomplished where a solid front is presented to the democrats.

Some of the president's advisors went so far as to say the outcome in Maine would bring back into the republican ranks many of the rank and file who have deserted it for the new party.

Wilson Satisfied. Atlantic City, Sept. 10.—Governor Wilson today declared himself satisfied with the outcome of the gubernatorial election in Maine.

"I think the results are very satisfactory," he said, "based on the result of those four years ago and two years ago. Two years ago the republicans were divided but this time they were united. That makes a great difference. In 1904 as I remember, a republican governor was elected by 25,000, and President Taft's majority was about 14,000."

WOMAN AUTO SPEEDER PAYS A VOLUNTARY FINE

Beautiful Daughter of Appleton Millionaire Pleads Guilty to Offense of Own Accord.

Appleton, Sept. 10.—"I understand I am wanted here to pay a fine," said Miss Julia Smith, 20-year-old daughter of Henry S. Smith, the multi-millionaire president of the Menasha Woodmen Ware company, when she walked into municipal court here late Monday. Miss Smith, who was accompanied, pleaded guilty to speeding her auto one day last week on the streets of Appleton and paid a fine of $10 and costs amounting to $13.90.

RIOTS LAST NIGHT AT DULUTH STRIKE

Mob of 3,000 Persons Attack Passing Cars Which Were Manned by Strike-breakers.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 10.—The street car situation here this morning remained strained with strikers talking of further outbreaks against the car company and the imported strike-breakers declaring they will stick if they can be assured police protection. About fifty per cent of the cars are running under direction of the strike breakers and are kept in bunches to afford protection. The street car service was at a standstill until in the afternoon yesterday when seventy-five strike-breakers were imported from the Twin Cities.

While the strikers were holding a meeting late last night a mob estimated 3,000 persons gathered in the west end of the city. Sticks and stones were thrown at passing cars and three strike-breakers were pulled from their places and beaten. It is said that one of them was injured so severely that he was unable to report for work today. Nearly all the windows in the cars were broken by the mob.

Peter Gurnerson, strike-breaker, deserted his car, declaring he had been shot at and would take no more chances. It was learned that a torpedo fastened to the rail had caused Gurnerson's flight.

When the mob became violent the police were called out. At first the gathering was not inclined to obey the officials and bills were thrown by strike sympathizers. The only sympathizer arrested was Charles Rivers, aged 16. He is charged with having thrown a club that struck Officer Fallon in the mouth. Thirteen other arrests were made. There were no strikers among the prisoners.

BUT ONE AMENDMENT GIVEN ENDORSEMENT

Arkansas Voters Will Limit Legislative Session But Turn Down State Wide Prohibition And Other Changes.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 10.—Meagre animal spirits today from the general state election in Arkansas yesterday, indicate that only one constitutional amendment submitted to the people for ratification received enough votes to insure its passage. This is the proposal to limit legislative session to sixty days. State wide prohibition and the so-called "grandfather's clause" amendment are believed to have failed. The democratic state ticket headed by congressman J. T. Robinson, candidate for governor is known to have been elected by an overwhelming majority although the returns are far from complete.

COLONEL AT COAST; JOHNSON IN CHICAGO

Bull Moose Chief Stirra Crowds At Seattle While Running Mate Has Strenuous Day In Illinois.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 10.—Theodore Roosevelt was greeted by a large crowd when he arrived here today. He was met by the reception committee and many delegates to the state progressive convention who escorted him and his party to Dreamland Hall, where the Colonel made a speech, while the candidates to the state convention proceeded to the state armory to ratify the nomination made by the state primary. Colonel Roosevelt will address the convention at the session this afternoon before departing for Tacoma.

Johnson's Busy Day. Chicago, Sept. 10.—To speak in nine Illinois cities in as many hours was the task that confronted Governor Johnson today when he arrived in Chicago from Detroit. The longest address of the day was scheduled for Streator, Ill., where a progressive Frank was to be held this afternoon. Frank H. Bunk, progressive candidate for governor and several progressive leaders joined the party at Chicago for the one day speaking tour. Governor Johnson planned to return to Chicago tonight and to start on a Wisconsin speaking tour tomorrow.

CHURCH BURNS MORTGAGE; OCCASION FOR REJOICING

Neenah, Sept. 10.—Burning a mortgage of $1,600 which has hung over the church for several years was an interesting part of special services held at the Methodist church today. The services commemorating the sixtieth anniversary of the dedication of the new church which is now free of debt. Rev. F. J. Turner, pastor and Rev. Brigham of Appleton were the principal speakers.

NORTHERN WISCONSIN FAIR TO BE A RECORD-BREAKER

Chippewa Falls, Sept. 10.—The northern Wisconsin state fair, which will be held in this city next week, will be on an unusually large scale. Entries in the various departments are so numerous that space will be almost at a premium.

GRANT PERMISSION TO MEXICAN TROOPS TO CROSS BOUNDARY

Formal Request From Mexico City Allowed by War Department—Reports From Front Are Disquieting.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Permission for 1,200 federal Mexican troops to pass through the United States from El Paso to Chihuahua and Sonora to attack the fleeing rebels was today granted to the Madero government by the state department. The arms of the troops will be carried as baggage. When the movement is to begin is not known.

Rebels Attack Town. Mexican regals under Gen. Salazar who began late yesterday a concerted attack on the town of Ojinaga opposite El Paso, were driven off by the federalists and are now retreating southwesterly in the direction of San Bernardino, according to a dispatch received at the war department from Gen. E. Z. Steever at El Paso. In the battle resulting from the attack of the rebels, the federal forces occupying the city lost four men killed and a number of horses. The loss sustained by the rebel forces, if any, was not ascertained.

Reports to Americans. The mayor of Ojinaga crossed the river after the skirmish and reported to Captain Adams in charge of the American patrol that the federal force was thoroughly loyal and was capable of holding the town against further rebel attacks.

In Secret Session. Mexico City, Sept. 10.—A secret session of the Mexican senate last night granted the request of President Madero for authorization to ask the United States government to permit the transportation of troops through American territory. It is planned to send a column of troops via El Paso, Tex., and Douglas, Ariz., into the state of Sonora where several bands of rebels are operating.

Delay in Starting. Fort Riley, Kansas, Sept. 10.—Because of delay in obtaining transportation facilities the 13th United States cavalry ordered to start for the Mexican border tomorrow probably will not entrain before Friday or Saturday, officers said today.

Reports Disquieting. Washington, Sept. 10.—More disquieting reports of the situation on the Arizona border continue today to reach the war department. Mexican rebels were said to be gathering in the vicinity of Cananea preparing for a long and forced march. Forces and supplies were being concentrated although every effort is being made to turn them back at the point of the most formidable expedition. Since Orozco's forces were scattered no satisfactory explanation has been found.

Scouts report a force close to 400 well armed rebels opposite Quitman, Tex., while 1500 more are reported encamped 10 miles to the rear. General Salazar still remains at Gabilano, and is being closely watched by the American patrol to prevent threatened raids. The situation at Ojinaga where there are several Americans is causing this government some uneasiness. Instead of a strong federal garrison as reported it has learned that the federal commander has only about 200 men. The rebels are gathering in increasing numbers in the vicinity.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF BANKERS OPENED

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10.—At the opening of the thirty-eighth annual convention of the American Bankers Association today between 1,500 and 2,000 visiting bankers, representing all sections of the country were present. The amount of capital represented is given at upwards of $10,000,000,000.

The gathering was opened in the Detroit Opera House at 10 o'clock this morning with an invocation by Rev. Joseph A. Vance, Governor Osborn and Mayor Thompson, speaking for the state of Michigan and the city of Detroit respectively, extended cordial greetings to the delegates. President George H. Russell of the Detroit Clearing House also welcomed the visitors in behalf of the Detroit bankers. Robert J. Lowry, of Atlanta, made the reply to the addresses of welcome.

The exchange of greetings was followed by the annual address of the association president, William Livingstone of Detroit. The annual reports of Secretary Frederick E. Farnsworth of New York city, Treasurer J. Fletcher Farrell of Chicago and of other officers and the standing committees completed the work of the initial session.

The principal features of the afternoon session were the addresses of Robert W. Bonynge, of Denver, on "Banking and Currency Reform," and United States Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan, who dealt with a variety of questions of interest to the financiers and the public in general.

The Aldrich currency plan was warmly approved by President William Livingstone in his address to the national convention of American Bankers Association which began here today commenting on the favorable action for the Aldrich suggestion taken by the convention at the New Orleans convention. He urged the delegates to continue their efforts to secure its adoption in Congress.

This association should stand by its guns in this important matter in the fullest sense of the word said President Livingstone and should continue to support the bill as previously recommended and should go on record as favoring its adoption.

HOLD EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS IN VIENNA

Sessions This Week Attended by Catholic Prelates From All Over World—Formal Opening Thursday.

Vienna, Sept. 10.—It is no exaggeration to say that the eyes of Roman Catholics throughout the world will be fixed on this city during the remainder of this week, the occasion being the meeting of the Eucharistic International Congress. This is an annual gathering of Catholic prelates from all parts of the world and is designed to celebrate the holy eucharist and to seek the best means of spreading its knowledge throughout the world. Vienna has never before had the honor of entertaining the gathering since it assumed its present worldwide character. Two years ago the congress assembled in Montreal, the meeting being the first held in the western world. Last year's congress met in Madrid.

The cardinal-legate sent by the Pope to attend the congress arrived in Vienna today and met with an enthusiastic reception. Scores of other noted prelates, from England, Italy, Spain, Germany, France, Belgium and from the United States, Canada and Australia, are due to reach Vienna within the next day or two. Nearly all the principal streets and squares of the city are decorated in honor of the occasion.

The formal opening of the congress is fixed for Thursday, which will be the anniversary of the day on which King Sobiesky, in 1683, having taken the Holy Communion, moved his troops towards Vienna for the memorable attack in which the Turks were conquered.

The sessions of the congress are to be held in the Ausserer-Burgplatz, which is conveniently located in the heart of the city. The gathering will conclude on Sunday with a great procession in celebration of the feast of the Name of Mary, which was specially established in memory of the liberation of Vienna from the power of the Musselmans.

MARINETTE SHERIFF IS ARRESTED TODAY

Five Different Counts Returned Against A. E. Schwittay Charged With Accepting Bribe Money.

Marinette, Wis., Sept. 10.—The grand jury investigating county affairs returned an indictment against Sheriff A. E. Schwittay this morning consisting of five different counts. He is charged with accepting money from C. E. Hitchcock, for the protection of a gambling house and a house of ill-fame, $150 in all, while he was district attorney and during his term as sheriff. The last count is for $10, last May. The sheriff was immediately arrested and taken before Circuit Judge Quinlan where his bond was fixed at $2,000. Sheriff Schwittay is the nominee on the republican ticket for the assembly. The grand jury is still in session.

NICARAGUA TROUBLE IS NEARLY SETTLED

Rear Admiral Sutherland Reports To Navy Department That Quiet Is Nearly Restored.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The revolution in Nicaragua is on the wane according to advices from Rear Admiral Sutherland today to the navy department. The admiral reports that the railway now is completely in the hands of the American landing forces and the uprising has dwindled to the proportion of the "usual Central American revolution."

DENTISTS TO REORGANIZE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Will be Modeled on Lines of American Medical Association—To Weld State Bodies.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 10.—A complete reorganization of the National Dental Association is to be effected at the association's sixteenth annual convention, which met in the capital today for a three days session. The association is to be reorganized along the lines of the American Medical Association and will be in close affiliation with all the state associations of dentists now in existence.

Bishop Harding delivered the invocation at the opening of the convention at the New Willard today. Commissioner Rudolph delivered an address of welcome and Dr. Frank O. Hetrick of Ottawa, Kas., responded for the visitors. The session also included the annual address of the president, Dr. Arthur R. Melendy of Knoxville, Tenn., and an address on "Modern Dentistry in Germany," by Dr. Newell S. Jenkins of Dresden.

ROCHESTER TO CELEBRATE CENTENNIAL OF FOUNDING

Elaborate preparations are rapidly nearing completion for Rochester's centennial celebration next week. The celebration will begin with anniversary exercises in the churches Sunday, while a succession of parades and other features will carry the program through the greater part of the week. The committee in charge of arrangements hopes to secure the presence of President Taft on the principal day of the celebration. Governor Dix and the mayors of many of the principal cities of the state have accepted invitations to attend.

LOS ANGELES READY TO GREET VETERANS

Arrangements for Forty-sixth National Encampment of G. A. R. are All Completed.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 10.—The arrangements for the forty-sixth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, with its several affiliated bodies, which will open in this city tomorrow, were completed today. Commander-in-Chief Trimble and the other national officers, together with veterans and other visitors estimated to total nearly 40,000, are in the city in readiness for the opening.

In connection with the meetings of Grand Army there will be held the annual gatherings of the "Woman's Relief Corps, the Ladies of the G. A. R., the Daughters of Veterans, the National Association of Army Nurses of the Civil War, the National Association of Naval Veterans, the National Association of Union Ex-Prisoners of War, and the National Association of Civil War Musicians."

The meetings and reunions of these various organizations will continue until Saturday. The big feature of the week will be the parade of the Grand Army tomorrow, when it is estimated, veterans variously estimated at from 15,000 to 25,000 will be in line.

The business sessions of the Grand Army encampment will begin Thursday. Much interest centers in the choice of the new commander-in-chief. For this office there are already several candidates in the field.

FORMER CASS LAKE MAYOR FACES PRISON

Dr. D. F. Dumas, Convicted of Arson, to be Arraigned for Sentence in Bemidji, Today.

Bemidji, Minn., Sept. 10.—Dr. D. F. Dumas, the former mayor of Cass Lake who is under conviction on a charge of arson, will be arraigned for sentence at the term of court which convened today. It is expected the attorney for Dr. Dumas will argue for a new trial. Should this plea fail, sentence will be pronounced and the former mayor will be taken to the Stillwater penitentiary.

The sentence of Dumas will end one of the most criminal cases with which the courts of Minnesota have had to deal in years. At the time of his arrest a year ago last June Dumas was mayor of Cass Lake and was respected both as a physician and public official. His arrest followed the alleged confession of two vegemen who had been shot and captured while cracking a safe in the town of Populosis. According to their stories told by the vegemen the physician-mayor was one of the ring leaders of a band of criminals that had carried on a state-wide campaign in arson and safe-cracking. Dumas was tried and convicted on a charge of arson.

WANT YOUNG MAN ON ABDUCTION CHARGE

New York Court Orders Arrest of Recently Appointed Secretary of Panama Legation.

New York, Sept. 10.—Harry E. Nolan, of Washington, D. C., recently appointed secretary to the United States legation at Panama failed to appear in police court today to plead to a charge of abducting 16-year old Marion McVicar, of New Port News, Va. His cash bail of $1,000 was ordered forfeited and two detectives were dispatched to arrest him.

Appointed in August. Washington, Sept. 10. Harry E. Nolan, the young diplomat arrested in New York charged with abduction was confirmed by the senate as secretary of legation at Panama on August 22.

Nolan, who was born here but who was appointed from Illinois had passed the examination necessary to his appointment and was ordered to report for instructions. He failed to do so, however, and has not communicated with the state department. The government will take no action until the courts pass upon the case.

New York, Sept. 10.—Nolan and the McVicar girl were located at a fashionable Broadway hotel where they were registered as N. E. Nolan and wife. The girl, daughter of a Glasgow inn-keeper, broke down and told the detective she had met Nolan aboard the vessel and at his suggestion that she got a position in New York, changed her mind about going to Scotland, and went with him.

Nolan had nothing to say to the detective and was released on $1,000 cash bail for appearance in court today. During the preparation of formal complaint Nolan disappeared. He has been ordered re-arrested.

EXTEND MARTIAL LAW ZONE IN WEST VIRGINIA

Charleston, W. APPLETON MAN HELD FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

John F. Pooley of Post Publishing Company Charged With Shortage In Accounts.

Appleton, Sept. 10.—John F. Pooley, for the last four years bookkeeper for the Post Publishing company in this city was arrested as he was boarding a train for Chicago charged with embezzling $50 on April 29, 1911. In municipal court he pleaded not guilty and in default of $2,000 bail was remanded to jail to await trial. The warrant for Pooley's arrest was sworn to by E. P. Humphrey, secretary of the company and it is said that a shortage of from $750 to $1,000 has already been discovered before the work of auditing the books is half completed.

The prisoner, who is about thirty years old and has a wife and three children, is alleged to have covered his shortages with intentional errors in his bookings. He was secretary of the Loyal Order of Moose until recently and his account in that order are also being audited.

SOO LINE PASSENGER LEAVES TRACK; NONE HURT

Neenah, Sept. 10.—While traveling thirty miles an hour a Soo line passenger train engine jumped the track at a curve here last evening. The engine plunged along the tracks for a long distance but did not overturn. The passengers were shaken but no one was injured. Considering the speed of the train it is remarkable no one was injured.

NOW THE LOVELY AUTUMN DAYS MAKE AUTUMN STYLES IMPERATIVE

By J. R. HAMILTON Former Advertising Manager Wanamakers, Philadelphia

New clothes are just as necessary to the happiness of a woman as food or shelter. It has become customary for every woman to be in style and to keep in style and whenever she is out of style she is out of harmony both with herself and with all of her surroundings.

The most stupid thing in the world is for any man to argue that style is not essential to a woman's happiness. To tell her that she has enough clothes already or that last season's are "not worn out" is to show an ignorance not only of her necessities but of his own.

For man is a greater slave to custom and to style than any woman dare be. From his boots to his hat he is absolutely a creature of convention; and convention is only one form of style.

Madam, when your husband asks you (as he probably will) why it is so necessary for you to get down to the stores right now and look over the new clothes just in, you ask him for example why it is so necessary for him to wear a necktie, or a certain kind of collar or a special style of hat.

Ask him if his necktie adds to his comfort or his ease or his happiness. Ask him if it keeps him warm. Ask him why he wears a collar that pinches his chin and makes his neck sore. Ask him why he wears that hideous hat which for ugliness has never seen its equal since the beginning of time.

And he will give you a woman's answer—"because."

It is all he can say. He wears them because every other man is wearing the same, and he would be the most uncomfortable individual this side of the eternal fires if you took them away from him or made him wear anything else.

He wears them because they are the custom or style or convention or whatever name he wishes to call it. But he doesn't wear them because they are necessary, or protective or warm or essential in the least to any of his bodily needs. No—he doesn't even have your excuse of wearing them because they are beautiful.

So dismiss his objections with a single wave of your hand. Good clothes and new styles are decidedly essential to happiness.

This paper is filled with the news of these new styles. Every advertisement is running over with it. Sit down now for a comfortable half hour and read this advertising news. Then pick out the styles and the stores that interest you most and go to them as soon as you can.

The Young Ladies Society of the German Lutheran church held their annual picnic and outing today at the Lake House, on Lake Koshkonong. There was a large attendance. A pleasant day's outing being the result.

IMPROVEMENT PLANS AGAIN BROUGHT UP

Division Street Plans Before Council This Afternoon—Reports On Others Are Made.

Plans for the opening and improvement of North Division Street from East Milwaukee street to North First street, to which objections were made by interested citizens at the last meeting of the City Council were again brought up for consideration this afternoon. Plans and specifications for the improvement of Garfield avenue from Clark street to Carrington street and Vista avenue from Garfield to Logan street were also submitted together with the reports of the Board of Public Works.

Reports were received and accepted from the city treasurer for the month ending August 31, and from the municipal court for the same period.

The Superintendent of Streets was directed to serve notice on the owner of lot 16 in block 17 of Smith's addition to build a standard cement sidewalk on the west side of Center avenue.

Sara J. Wilson asked the permission of the Council to erect a building on lot 3 in Wilson's subdivision facing Academy street between Dodge and Plymouth streets.

G. D. Cannon requested the right to use a portion of West Milwaukee street for the storage of building material during process of construction.

FAILED TO GO HOME; NOW OBLIGED TO STAY

Harry Tolberg, Madison Young Man, Does Not Keep Promise And Gets Jail Sentence.

Harry Tolberg, a young man who works as a tailor in Madison, was picked up on West Milwaukee street yesterday morning suffering from a fit. He was brought to the police station, where he appeared sufficiently revived after two or three hours to return home. He failed to do this, however, and last evening the police were asked to call for him at the Park Hotel where he had another fit and caused a disturbance. Officer Brown called for him and he was taken to the police station in an automobile. This morning he pleaded guilty to a charge of intoxication, and was sentenced to two days' imprisonment in jail, and to pay a fine of $4 and costs, or prolong his stay five days.

MISS ELLEN NOLAN WEDS HARRY ZIGLER

Ceremony Solemnized at St. Patrick's Parsonage This Afternoon—Reception at Bride's Home.

Miss Ellen Nolan and Harry Zigler were united in marriage at the parsonage of St. Patrick's church this afternoon, the Rev. Father William Mahoney officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nora Nolan, and F. Zigler, brother of the groom, was the best man.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, J. Nolan, 321 Galena street, which was attended by friends and relatives of the young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Nolan left this evening for Sioux Falls, South Dakota, on an extended wedding trip. They will be at home after October 1, at 257 Rock street.

The bride is a popular young lady and has a large circle of friends here. Mr. Zigler who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Zigler of Savanna Ill., and who formerly lived there, is a rising young business man. He was recently appointed general manager of the Union Pacific Tea Company's store in this city.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Rachel Magill.
Mrs. Rachel Magill, mother of Mrs. N. Ross of Janesville, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ella Riggs at Rockford, on Friday, Sept. 6, after an illness of about six months. During a part of her illness she had been at the home of her daughter in this city.

Rachel Andrews was born July 7, 1842, at Brasher, New York. She leaves a husband, four daughters and two sons: J. W. Magill of Belvidere and E. J. Gilmore of Chicago; Mrs. Ella Riggs of Rockford; Mrs. M. Streeter of Belvidere; Mrs. L. Tremble of Whitewater, Wis.; and Mrs. N. Ross of Janesville; she also leaves two brothers and three sisters: Melvin and Oscar Andrews of Belvidere; Mrs. Melvina Scott of Granville, Ill.; Mrs. Elvina Lamphere of Clinton, Wis.; and Mrs. Libbie Hutchinson of Harvard, Ill.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Sept. 8, from the home of her daughter in Rockford. The interment was made in the cemetery at Belvidere.

NO EXCURSION RATES TO FAIRS OVER RAILROADS

Railroads Refuse to Lower Prices of Tickets Since Two Cent Fare Law Went Into Effect.

Contrary to the expectations of some people, the idea fostered by the practice of the railroads in years past of giving special rates to the fairs, is not being carried out this year. Since the two-cent passenger fare law went into effect the common carrier companies are rather chary of granting special rates, in fact, excursion rates have gone out of fashion and travelers must pay the regular rate, two cents per mile.

Extra coaches were put on both morning trains to Milwaukee over the St. Paul railroad today for passengers to the state fair, but the number of passengers in the extra coaches was small. Comparatively few from this city went in to attend the fair today.

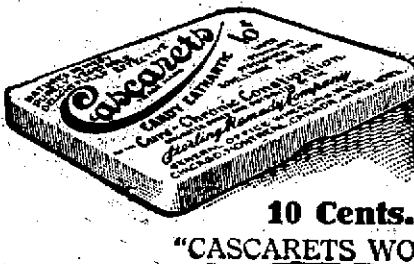

BANNER TOBACCO FIELD.

The tobacco field shown in the illustration is that of Herman Aider, one-half mile east of the Driving Park grounds on the Milwaukee road. There were ten acres in the tract, and the size of the leaf can be judged by the crop, which was mostly shed.

FEEL BULLY! HEADACHE GONE, LIVER ACTIVE AND BOWELS CLEAN—"CASCARETS"

No odds how bad your liver, stomach or bowels; how much your head aches, how miserable and uncomfortable you are from constipation, indigestion, biliousness and sluggish intestines—you always get the desired results with Cascarets.

They end the headache, biliousness, dizziness, nervousness, sick, sour, gassy stomach. They cleanse your liver and bowels of all the sour bile, foul gases and constipated matter which is producing the misery. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months.

GUND AND GRAHAM GIVEN MILWAUKEE AVE. CONTRACT

Gund & Graham of Freeport, were yesterday afternoon awarded the contract for the improvement of Milwaukee avenue, the Board of Public Works accepting their figure of $2,536.84. The contract for the improvement of Washington street has not yet been awarded. All the bids submitted in this instance exceeded the estimates of the city engineer. The Board of Public Works still has the matter under consideration.

The Foundation of Perfect Health Is a Perfect Spine

If Your Spine is Out of Line You Can't Possibly Be in Perfect Health.

Wonderful processes take place in Nature's laboratory. Flowers bloom, trees leaf out and bear fruit, the whole face of the earth is transformed in one season. A perfectly well man is suddenly taken sick and is put entirely out of the running for several weeks, then is he suddenly restored to health. That is often the case of a man whose spine has been out of line for some time with the vertebrae of the spine at column pressing on the tender nerves that lead from the spine. Through a quick turn in bed the misaligned vertebra is restored to its proper place, the normal amount of nerve force goes to the place or part that nerve feeds and health is again restored. Figure it out for yourself. With a pinched nerve can you expect to be well? The Chiropractor, by releasing pinched nerves, removes the cause of disease and nature makes you well.

Olympic Stars will compete at the national track and field championships of the amateur athletic union at Pittsburgh September 20 to 21. A preliminary announcement from the offices of the union states that this year's championships promise to be the greatest ever held in this country, principally owing to the great interest aroused by the victory of the American team at the Olympic games at Stockholm.

Tommy Gavigan, the Cleveland middleweight, ought not to go hungry for fighting. Recently he received no fewer than six challenges in one day. Jack Dillon, Jeff Clark, Montana Jack Sullivan, Willie Lewis, Jack Denning and Mike Glover are all anxious to try fist conclusions with him. Tommy thinks he can clear up on the crowd, if they'll come at him one at a time.

Not all English sportsmen who came in contact with Americans at the Olympic games are soreheads. If you don't believe it just read what Edgar S. Seligman, captain of the English team has to say. "In view of the publicity given by the press to the methods of American athletes," recently declared Seligman, "I should like to place on record that, in the opinion of the British fencing team and myself, it would be impossible to meet more courteous gentlemen or more loyal adversaries than the swordsmen hailing from the United States."

Manager Stovall of the St. Louis Browns seems to have a knack of developing southpaws which a lot of other managers would like to get on. He is credited with having brought to the front Vean Gregg when he was managing the Cleveland Naps last year, and this season it is Earl Hamilton. No southpaw ever showed better than Hamilton has in some recent games.

Since Labor Day little Joe Mandot's stock has jumped up rapidly, and they do say now that he stands a good chance of taking Ad Volgas's title away from him. Joe is a great boxer and a fighter, too. He hits a straight left to the face, a clean, solid body blow with his right and has a swinging left hand counter to the body. "What makes Mandot such a dangerous fighter," says Frankie Conley, who has fought him, "is that he starts his punches from such peculiar positions. You never have the slightest warning when or where it's coming."

In "Dutchtown," a suburb of Los Angeles, there performed not many years ago a wild and woolly baseball team which had the reputation of never being beaten. The pitcher was a whirlwind. They couldn't hit him in the first place and if they ever got on they never got to second because the catcher, who was a whirlwind, heaved 'em out. The "Dutchtown" aggregation took on league teams as well as amateurs, and always won. "Twas the battery that did it—the greatest kid battery that ever lived, composed of Walter Johnson, now champion twirler of the American league, and Ted Easterly of the Chicago White Sox. Walter was seventeen, Ted sixteen.

Johnson drifted into Idaho, where a Washington scout picked him up, after he had pitched 70 innings without allowing opponents a run. Easterly joined the Los Angeles club and a little later graduated into the American league.

At The Theatre

THE DIVORCE QUESTION.
The Catholic church's firm stand on the subject of divorce is ardently championed in "The Divorce Question" which will be produced at the Myers Theatre, Wednesday, Sept. 11, by Rowland and Clifford.

The author, Mr. Wm. Anthony McGuire, shows a thorough knowledge of his subject and has staged a most realistic picture of those who strive to defy society and in an admirable manner he represents his side of the question long discussed. His belief is that divorces do not remedy marital woe inasmuch as the children's future should be taken into consideration and in his intensely interesting human drama illustrates by the absence of a father's guiding hand—a mother's tender care which is the child's inheritance by right, the moral and physical ruin brought upon the children by practical abandonment and neglect.

BUNTY PULLS THE STRINGS.
The quaint Scotch comedy, "Bunty Pulls the Strings" which comes to the Myers Theatre on Tuesday, Sept. 17, is full of original sayings quaintly put and full of dry humor. Among them are some admonitions to women such as these: "Even though ye are plain, dinna be so plain as ye look." "Wummin make a great mistake when they think a man cares about is to see ye looking bonny. It's true he dinna want a wumman around lookin' like a hen that's been out in the rain. No matter how plain ye are, ye maun continue to look attractive enough for a kisser but it's easy, if ye are a wumman of sense."

DON'T CRITICISE CHILDREN'S FOOD

Children should not be allowed to hear any disagreeable criticism of food that they are expected to eat, and if the food that is selected for them is the best, as it should be, it is well to maintain the suggestion that it is good, that foods that are not given are not as good as those selected for them and that the appetite is not always to be satisfied, since some animals and men will eat and drink things that will poison them. Too much attention should not be spent, however, on the disagreeable features, but attention concentrated on the fact that the food furnished is the best, that if it is eaten slowly it will make them strong and healthy and able to learn and grow happy and kind and to excel in study and in work.

DANCE AT GOLF CLUB

IN HONOR OF GUESTS

Informal Party Given By Mrs. John F. Sweeney and Miss Blanche Sweeney Last Evening.

Mrs. John F. Sweeney and daughter, Miss Blanche Sweeney gave an informal dancing party last evening at the Mississippi Golf Club house for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Funk of Bloomington, Ill.

Strings of Japanese lanterns and large, well placed bouquets, were used as decorations for the hall. Carier and Menzies played the dance music with piano and traps. Cold punch was served on the veranda at the east end of the club house between dances, and light refreshments were served about midnight. Dancing continued until one o'clock. A very pleasant evening was spent by all present.

BARNEY'S COLTS TOOK EASY GAME FROM BUSH LEAGUERS

In a game at South Janesville Sunday afternoon Barney's Colts scampily defeated away from the Bush Leaguers by a score of 10 to 1. The only run made by the Bush Leaguers was scored in the seventh inning when Howard started what seemed to be a batting rally by hitting out a three-bagger. Carroll, next up, drove out a single, and brought Howard home, but was caught stealing and Schmidt whiffed. Connell, pitching for the Colts, struck out thirteen men and the old stellar work. Berger was in the number four for the Leaguers and struck out 9, but lacked support in the field. The Teams lined up as follows:

Colts:—Connell, p.; Doran, c.; P. Cronin, ss.; Fleming, 1b.; G. Cronin, 2b.; Patterson, 3b.; W. Cronin, if.; Hanson, cf.; Boss, rf.
Bush Leaguers:—Berger, p.; Fleming, c.; Holtz, ss.; Howard, 1b.; Carroll, 2b.; Schmidt, 3b.; Ritter, if.; Gary, cf.; Condon, rf.

FREAR-GILBERTSON CONTEST UNDECIDED

Election Fight in Tenth Congressional District Will Be Seated By Second Choice Vote.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Madison, Sept. 10.—The election contest in the tenth congressional district will devolve upon the second choice votes which have been cast for Frear and Gilbertson. According to unofficial returns, Frear has carried the counties of St. Croix, Chippewa, Barron, Trempealeau, Pepin and Pierce by about the same margins as Gilbertson who carried Eau Claire, Dunn and Buffalo. Election returns were received at the office of the secretary of state this morning from seven additional counties, Jefferson, Calumet, Ozaukee, Monroe, Lafayette, Sauke and Lincoln. These counties alone give Owen a lead over Lehner of 705. Six of these counties were carried by Johnson over Krumrey.

An Ounce of Prevention Is worth a Pound of Cure

When you buy Gasoline and Cylinder Oil that will add to the efficiency of your auto and furnish you with as near perfect power and lubrication as can be produced, you are adding the ounce of prevention that will eliminate the expensive pound of cure which, to the auto owner comes in the form of repair bills. 68-70 test Imperial Gasoline is as near a perfect motor fluid as can be produced, because it is clean, carbonless, high power, instantaneous and uniform, these attributes should appeal to every one who runs an automobile.

IT IS FOLLY TO USE GOOD GASOLINE HOWEVER, UNLESS YOU USE A GOOD AUTOMOBILE LUBRICATING OIL OR VICE VERSA, AS ONE BAD PRODUCT WILL MORE THAN OVERCOME ALL THE VIRTUES THERE MAY BE IN THE OTHER.

VISCOLINE AUTO OIL IS THE ACME OF REFINING SUPERIORITY, IT IS MADE FROM PENNSYLVANIA CRUDE OIL, WELL FILTERED AND ABSOLUTELY CLEAN.

Let us eliminate the expensive pound of cure for you by supplying you with the ounce of prevention in 68-70 test Imperial Gasoline and decarbonized Viscoline Auto Oil.

HORSE RACES

There are sixty Race Horses on the grounds now, and the entries promise sport extraordinary. Heavy purses have brought some fast ones and you will not be disappointed in the races.

There are many other features, too numerous to mention in this space, which will interest you from the minute you enter the grounds to the time you leave them.

Two bands will enliven the time with music, and a Ball Game each morning will be special attraction.

NEWSPAPER REGULATION.

After regulating the trusts, the railroads, the packers and pretty much everything else in sight, the government now proposes to take a hand in regulating the newspapers, and Postmaster General Hitchcock is now sending out blanks to be filled out and filed October 1st, which will cause some of the publishers, as well as a certain class of advertisers, to sit up and take notice.

Many newspapers are accused of being owned or controlled by private interests. The new law provides that the names of all stock or bondholders shall be published every six months, accompanied by a sworn statement of paid circulation.

The press of the country has long been flooded with a lot of fake advertising, which appears as news matter, thus making the publisher responsible for its truthfulness. Canadian land schemes have been exploited, in this way and many American farmers have thus been induced to become British subjects.

The government claims that the postoffice department carries second class mail matter at a loss and thus contributes to a scheme which depopulates the country. The law is good in every way, and will be welcomed by all publishers who have nothing to conceal. Following are the provisions in detail:

"That it shall be the duty of the editor, publisher, business manager or owners of every newspaper, magazine, periodical or other publication to file with the postmaster general and the postmaster at the office at which said publication is entered, not later than the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October of each year, on blanks furnished by the postoffice department, a sworn statement setting forth the names and postoffice addresses of the editor and managing editor, publisher, business manager and owners, and in addition the stockholders if the publication be owned by a corporation, and also the names of known bondholders, mortgagees or other security holders, and also, in the case of daily newspapers, there shall be included in such statements the average number of copies of each issue of such publication sold or distributed to paid subscribers during the preceding six months."

"Provided, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to religious, fraternal, temperance and scientific or other similar publications."

"Provided further, that it shall not be necessary to include in such statement the names of persons owning less than 1 per centum of the total amount of stocks, bonds, mortgages or other securities."

"A copy of such sworn statement shall be published in the second issue of such newspaper, magazine or other publication printed next after the filing of such statement. Any such publication shall be denied the privileges of the mail if it shall fail to comply with the provisions of this paragraph within ten days after notice by registered letter of such failure."

"Advertisement matter must be marked."

"That all editorial or other reading matter published in any such newspaper, magazine or periodical for the publication of which money or other valuable consideration is paid, accepted or promised shall be plainly marked 'advertisement.' Any editor or publisher printing editorial or other reading matter for which compensation is paid, accepted or promised without so marking the same shall upon conviction in any court having jurisdiction be fined not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500)."

The law is wholesome. It protects both the publisher and the public and gold brick dealers will be compelled to seek other channels of publicity.

FREE TRADE ENGLAND.

The head of a Liverpool cotton house, now on a flying visit to this country and Canada, says:

"It is almost impossible to describe the feeling of unrest in Great Britain. It not only extends to the head of families, but the women and even the children share in it. Germany is underselling our merchants throughout the country and in our colonies, and the only remedy is a protective tariff not as high as your tariff."

"You are at one extreme and we are at the other. Unless there is a change, civil, and possibly international, complications are sure within the next two years. My advice to Americans, is not to be in too much of a hurry to reduce their tariff, although as far as we are concerned, we of course wish there was no tariff on our wares shipped to America. Even now we can pay the duty and undersell some of our manufacturers."

This ought to be good authority on free trade in full swing, as well as a warning to many people who are clamoring for a tariff for revenue only. The protective tariff with all its apparent inconsistencies has made this nation what it is from a manufacturing and commercial standpoint, and it has contributed more to the prosperity of our agricultural interests than all other causes combined.

American labor is the greatest beneficiary, and steady employment at good wages has established and maintained a home market, which has no rival.

Some of the industries may be over-protected, but better by far to suffer injustice, on this account, than to take down the bars, close our factories, and flood the country with the product of pauper labor, as was done in 1893. The republican party stands for a tariff that will protect labor, and this is of supreme importance.

OF INTEREST TO EYES.

If the boys of 14 and 15 would absorb the figures contained in the following paragraph, in an article recently sent out by the commissioner of education, from the Department of the Interior, many of them might be influenced to remain in school and acquire knowledge so necessary to efficient work. The time is coming when the common schools of the land will furnish the technical training, as many of them are doing today, and when the importance of this kind of training will be experienced in keeping the boys in school. The paragraph follows:

"What is the money value of an education? The average reduced to individual cases, would be something like this: Two boys, age 14, are both interested in mechanics. One goes into the shops, the other into a technical school. The boy in the shops starts at $4 a week, and by the time he is 18 he is getting $7. At that age the other boy is leaving school and starting work at $10 a week. At 20 the shop-trained young fellow is getting $9.50 and the technical graduate $17; at 22 the former's weekly wage is $11.50 and the latter's $20; and by the time they are both 25 the shopworker finds $12.75 in his pay envelope while the technically trained man draws a salary of $31. These figures are based on a study of 2,000 actual workers made by the Massachusetts Commission for Industrial and Technical Education."

The most disreputable feature of the progressive campaign, is the publishing of the Archbold letters, secured by bribing a confidential employee. The Chicago Tribune lends itself to the Colonel, and he furnishes the ammunition. Hearst, the man who was accused of being responsible for the murder of McKinley, is the go-between, and this high-browed trio seem to think it commendable to encourage a crime which is worse than burglary.

The governor of the state of Michigan, as well as the warden of his penitentiary, is being freely denounced for the tragedy which recently occurred, as the result of cruel and inhuman treatment. The convicts of Michigan are no worse than the convicts of other states. The discovery was long since made that reform, as well as punishment, is demanded, but Michigan has been slow to learn.

Some one said of the aviation meet in Chicago, that none of last year's birdmen were in attendance. The most of them have made their last flight, and passed on.

The state of Maine is still in the republican column, and the state of Georgia is causing the democratic party no worry.

If hot weather fills the beet with sugar, the grower can afford to perspire while his crop matures.

A shortage of the bean crop is causing the good people of Boston to worry.

From Our London Correspondent.

London is a large city which covers all of England and portions of Scotland and Wales. It has a town hall, a good band and orchestra, excellent patrol wagons, a good hotel, a fine church and a theater which is open every night or so. There is hardly a night but what there is some sort of show at the Opera house.

There are no tall buildings in London. I inquired about this and was told that it was due to the fact that the sky was so close to the ground most of the time that anything higher than five stories would be in another world.

The climate of London is hard to describe. In fact, they have none. All they have is weather and they have this all the time. It is so foggy.

FIRE CHIEFS' CONVENTION HELD IN DENVER THIS WEEK.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Denver, Colo., Sept. 10.—Fire chiefs representing many large cities of the United States and Canada are attending the annual convention of the International Association of Fire Engineers, which met in this city today for a three days' session. The program provides for papers, addresses and discussions covering the entire field of fire fighting. In connection with the convention there is a large exhibition of the latest improvements and inventions in fire fighting apparatus.

Complaints from employers of large office forces have resulted in a new form of insurance, the safest and sanest policy yet adopted for the protection of the toiler who lives in daily fear of losing employment.

Employment insurance is, believed will not only make many happier homes but disband forever the "army of the unemployed," organizing in its stead the "army of the overjoyed."

The Gazette is offering this form of insurance to the general public, but especially to office employees, during the present "office employees week" of the dictionary distribution.

The possession of a copy of the new Websterian Dictionary, illustrated, the dictionary that is more than a dictionary—and the constant use of the work it is believed will in the present age of prevailing ignorance of the proper use of the English language insure not only permanent employment but protection as well.

The book that you cannot buy will be given to you under the conditions found upon another page of this issue.

The mere possession of the book is the best "pull" with the "boss" you will ever have.

Why should a stenographer work for such a meagre wage?

Because he or she has graduated from a stenographic school but never had received sufficient education in spelling, punctuation and the use of English. It is this ignorance that keeps the average stenographic wage so low.

This is but one of the reasons why The Gazette dictionary is so popular. For it is the best means of overcoming this defective education. The constant use of a handy dictionary so convenient in size that you can and will use it is the answer of the stenographic puzzle.

This dictionary is not published by the original publishers of Webster's Dictionary or by their successors. Clip six consecutive coupons and discover what they are.

By most of the time that a man can walk home with tupence worth of tripe for lunch without being talked about. I believe it has even been possible in some cases for a gentleman to help another gentleman's wife across the thoroughfare without starting a scandal and, when it comes to dodging creditors, the London fog is the greatest invention that has ever been accomplished.

Often times men are obliged to stay down in the city two or three weeks at a time because they can't find their way home. They have been making this ancient and bewildered excuse stick for centuries. England has some advantages over America. The fog is one. There are nights when a fog like that would be worth a good deal to some men I know.

The Weather. We're sorry, Mr. Weather Man, but we must make a kick. We're surely growing weary of the hope. You're handing us in bunches, and you'd better stop it quick. Before our state of mind is beyond hope.

We are much obliged to start out in the morning with a bunch of clothing that would stock a city store. Providing that we take the morning paper's daily bunch. About your weather prophesies galore.

We take a cravat along, and e'en a diving suit; A linen duster and a palm leaf fan; A heavy winter overcoat and seal skin cap to boot; A parasol to keep away the tan. A pair of woolen leggings and a Panama chapeau.

And seven suits of varied underwear. When'er we brave the elements and set about to go. And make a friendly visit anywhere.

When'er we read your bulletins we all bemoan our fate. It certainly upsets a fellow's brain. To figure out the mixture that you hand us when you state. "The weather will be fair, unless it rain."

You add it will be warmer some, but colder yet in spots. And every last prediction reads the same.

In the ward of the incurables we'll all be havin' cots. Unless you promise to cut out the game.

BETTER SANITATION NEEDED TO PREVENT EPIDEMICS IN CITY

City Health Officer Dr. M. A. Cunningham Writes of Civic Health Conditions in Janesville.

More careful attention and obedience to common rules and requirements of sanitation and cleanliness is advocated by City Health Officer Dr. M. A. Cunningham in the contribution published below. He also states what precautions should be taken to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis, of which there are now three cases in the city. Dr. Cunningham's statement which was issued today, follows:

"Every day I am asked about the health of the city—and therefore think that most people would be interested to know that at the present time, there is but one contagious case (infantile paralysis) in the city, and as near as I can learn there is but little sickness of any kind. I have been asked time and again what the take care of the whole city. As it was so successfully conducted the first days of May by the ward managers and their assistants, has had to do with present health condition.

Garbage a Breeder.

"It is needless to say that it has had much to do with present conditions, and I venture to state if we could at this time induce the citizens of Janesville to clean up the garbage and rubbish that the amount of sickness which will be sure to be with us in the near future, would be diminished by more than half. I have ordered many places cleaned up but it is impossible for me without assistance to take care of the whole city as it should be. I therefore request each family to clean up and not subject yourselves and your neighbors to these unsanitary conditions which are so productive of disease.

"It looks as if many carry the idea that to clean up in the spring is sufficient for the entire year. Many have grown negligent and unless in some way we can arouse in them the necessity for cleanliness, our city, as I said before, will be long experience its epidemics of sickness the result of which will mean a home without a brother or sister, a father or a mother.

"It ought not be necessary to arrest and fine people for violating the ordinance regarding the proper disposal of garbage, etc., and yet a few fines have been paid for this offense and there will be others unless the ordinance is more strictly adhered to.

Report Disease Promptly.
"Another instance in which arrests have been made and fines paid is for not reporting within 24 hours, contagious diseases. It seems almost incredible that any father or mother would knowingly harbor within their homes a case of contagion thus subjecting the whole family as well as the neighbors to the much dreaded disease.

"Last spring on account of such cases some of our schools came near being closed. No physician was called and the disease was communicated to several children. For the benefit of those parents or guardians, who do not see fit to call a physician the law requires you to report the following diseases to the health officer within twenty-four hours from the beginning of the disease or be subject to a fine of from $5 to $25 or each day you neglect to do so: Diphtheria, scarlet fever, typhoid fever, whooping cough, small pox, measles, consumption, meningitis and infantile paralysis.

Infantile Paralysis.
"Since writing the foregoing two other cases of infantile paralysis, have occurred and been quarantined. Others have been promiscuously reported, but such reports have not been verified. These cases have produced a scare or dread throughout our city and much talk among parents and others as to what should be done. Especially is this true with reference to closing the schools. It would be useless to close the schools unless there be a general closing in the whole city. That would mean a closing of the churches, theaters, library, schools and stores generally. It would mean a cessation of all business in the city. No outside people would be allowed to come into the city and as many in the city as could get out without being detected would do so.

"It is considered best to keep our schools open. To keep the children under the scrutinous eyes of the teachers in well lighted, well ventilated, strictly sanitary schoolrooms, than to have them congregate on our hot, dusty, unsanitary streets, where they play in the boiling sun with arms around each other, etc.

Citizens Can Help.
"I can assure you that every possible precaution is being taken and will be taken to prevent the further spread of this disease. Now what can you do to help in this matter? Sprinkle your street and lawn to keep down the dust. Use some antiseptic solution as a mouth and nasal spray as it is the mucous membrane of the nose, mouth and throat that are the seat of this infection. I would suggest one of the following antiseptic solutions: Glyco-thymoline, borolytol, lysterine or trols.

"Dr. Harper, secretary state board of health, who has been intimately associated with all the epidemics of infantile paralysis in our state as well as others is free in voicing his opinion that our schools should not be closed.

M. A. CUNNINGHAM,
Health Officer.

WOODMEN OF THE WORLD GIVE HARVEST DANCE

One Hundred Couples Attend—Hall Decorated With Shocks of Corn—Dance and Other Grain.

Decorative heat failed to keep dancers away from the harvest hall of the Woodmen of the World, given at Assembly hall last evening. One hundred jovial couples attended, and the dancing continued until one o'clock this morning. The Hatch orchestra played the dance music. Shocks of corn, rye and oats were used to decorate the hall and arranged so attractively that they drew much favorable comment.

SCHOOLS TO RESUME SESSIONS TOMORROW

High School Building And Rooms In Jefferson And Grant Schools Thoroughly Fumigated.

Announcement was made by Superintendent H. C. Buell this afternoon that school would be resumed tomorrow morning at the high school and also in the rooms of the Jefferson and Grant school which were fumigated by the local health authorities yesterday and today as a precaution against the spread of infantile paralysis, three cases of which are reported in the city.

Dr. S. B. Buckmaster, member of the school board, and Dr. A. M. Cunningham, local health officer, communicated with the state health department at Madison today, and the state authorities, advised that it would not be at all necessary to close the schools or forbid public gatherings of any kind. Ordinary precautions to prevent the spread of the disease were all that could be asked, was the opinion of the state officials.

Two rooms in the Jefferson school and one in the Grant building as well as the entire high school, were fumigated. In the two ward schools there was no infantile paralysis among the pupils, but some of the pupils had frequented the homes where cases existed and it was consequently thought wise to take the step toward safeguarding the children's health.

CONFESSED HUNTING PRAIRIE CHICKENS

William Pappas and Michael Banos, two young Greeks, plead guilty in the municipal court this morning to hunting prairie chickens in the town of Center, on September 10. Judge Fifield, imposed the minimum sentence of $25 and costs, amounting to $30 each, but they were unable to pay and had to accept the alternative of thirty days in jail. Pappas and Banos were placed under arrest early this morning by Game Warden William Mason, who made an investigation following the complaints of farmers that some of the Greek railway workmen were slaughtering the game.

Banos, who is about nineteen years old, and came from Chicago but three years ago, was able to speak and understand English, but his companion, Gerardant Kungist, but his companion could not. The judge and district attorney were not able to satisfy themselves that the two young men understood the charge until the Greek railway foreman for whom they worked came into court and volunteered his services as an interpreter. Both claimed to be ignorant of the game laws. Pappas, who first entered a plea of guilty, later asked to change it, but subsequently withdrew his plea, but he did not carry a gun, but it seems accompanied Banos and drummed up the game with a stick.

By two o'clock this afternoon the two Greeks were able to obtain sufficient money to pay their fines and were liberated.

Jesus Saves

1st Epistle John 1:5-10.

5 "This then is the message which we have heard of Him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in Him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth.

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

9 If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us.

MISS GRIEBEL WEDS WILLIAM J. VLYMAN AT SEVEN TONIGHT

Marriage Service Will Be Performed at St. Mary's Parsonage With Reception Afterward at Home of Miss Susan Jeffris.

The marriage of Miss Agnes M. Griebel to William J. Vlyman will be solemnized this evening, the wedding ceremony being performed at the parsonage of St. Mary's church by the Rev. W. A. Goebel at seven o'clock.

The ceremony will be attended only by relatives and the most intimate friends, but afterwards a wedding reception will be held at eight o'clock at the residence of Miss Susan Jeffris, S. Jackson St., where the bride has made her home for a number of years. About a hundred guests are expected to attend the reception and part of the evening will be given over to dancing, to the strains of music by Hatch's orchestra. Refreshments will also be served. The bridal couple will leave this evening for a wedding trip and will spend a week or two at some summer resort, before departing for their future home at Albert Lea, Minn. They will be at home there after October 25.

The bride's gown will be of embroidered lace over white satin. The house has been handsomely decorated for the reception with flowers of many varieties, a color scheme of green and white being carried out throughout the rooms.

Both young people are well known in this city and have a large number of friends in society circles of the younger set. The bride has made her home for a number of years past with Miss Susan Jeffris. The groom who was formerly an instructor in the Janesville high school, now holds a position with the Janesville Barb Wire company.

Among the people from out of town who are here for the wedding are the Misses Mary and Cecile Griebel of Monroe, sisters of the bride, Miss Jean and Donald Jeffris of Chicago.

BIG LAND PURCHASE IS MADE BY STATE

Tract in Oneida and Vilas Counties Amounting Nearly to Two Townships Become State Property.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Sept. 10.—The state added 20,000 acres to its forestry reserve today by the purchase of land in Oneida and Vilas counties owned by the Land, Log and Lumber Co., of Milwaukee. The document of sale is signed by Edward Bradley of Milwaukee, and E. F. Wilson of Wausau, secretary. These lands were cut over nearly twenty years ago, and the state has been negotiating for the purchase of these tracts, including nearly two townships for over a year past. The other large sale this year will be concluded in a few days, when the H. W. Wright Lumber Co., of Merrill, will transfer 16,000 acres of cut-over land in Vilas county to the state. The lands of the Land, Log and Lumber Co., were purchased for $4.50 an acre.

Aside from these two large purchases the forestry reserve has been increased this year by 500 acres of land in the form of 350 small islands in inland waters in the northern one-third part of the state. These lands were donated by Congress as the result of a bill introduced by Congressman E. A. Morse in the House and pushed through the senate by Senator Robert M. La Follette. The forestry reserve is now composed of about 400,000 acres of land, not including the lands held by the state for sale to be used for agricultural purposes.

At the present time the state owns from 80,000 to 90,000 acres of agricultural land scattered over northern Wisconsin. These lands have been appraised both as to the value of the land and to the amount of timber upon them. The price at which these lands sell vary according to the district in which they are located. Some of these lands sell as low as $3.00 an acre and the highest price that has been received by the State is $35 an acre. State Forester E. M. Griffith says that he is receiving hundreds of applications from people who desire to locate summer homes upon the lakes within the forestry reserve. Conditions in the reserve are very favorable at the present time but he declares that if this weather continues there is always danger of forest fires.

FRESH CAULIFLOWER FOUND ON LOCAL MARKET TODAY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Fresh cauliflower is the feature of today's vegetable market, it is the finest to be found on the local market this season, and it took an unlooked for increase in price this morning. The fresh Michigan peaches which came on the market a short time ago are still of excellent quality and they are having a very heavy run on them. Blueberries are just about all gone and the next few days will see the last of them. Red peppers are also getting to be of a much better quality and they are very abundant. Watermelons which have been so very good this year are still on the market in large quantities and there is a very great demand for them. The prices of the local market for today are as follows:

Connecticut Republicans.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 10.—The Republican state convention of Connecticut assembled here today for organization. Tomorrow the convention will nominate candidates for governor and other state officers to be voted for in November. The party appears to be somewhat at sea over a standard bearer. Judge Sias A. Robinson of Middletown and several others are under consideration as a candidate to oppose Governor Simeon E. Baldwin, who in all probability will be re-nominated by the Democrats.

BETTER LIVESTOCK URGED FOR STATE

State Agricultural and Breeder's Association Co-operate to Secure Results.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Sept. 10.—George G. Humphrey, of the animal husbandry department of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture and the Wisconsin Live Stock Breeders' association is actively co-operating in a state wide campaign which is being carried on by the stockmen of the state to encourage the production of more and better live stock.

"Live stock farming and soil fertility support and follow each other," declares this well known authority. "The farmer who owns a rich, fertile farm and keeps as many productive animals of two or more classes, as the farm will support is in position to enjoy a lifetime of continued prosperity and to leave his sons a goodly heritage. Too often men fail to enjoy such a prosperity and do not leave their sons the splendid heritage of a fertile farm."

"Without any intention of doing wrong, many farmers have enjoyed a limited degree of prosperity at the expense of those who are to farm their fields after them. This has been accomplished by the continued growing and marketing of farm crops to such an extent that the soil fertility has become exhausted and the farms have been practically worn out. A retired farmer once, when invited to attend an agricultural meeting boastfully remarked, 'There isn't much anyone can teach me about farming. I have lived long enough to wear out three farms and I doubt if many men have had any more experience than I.' As a result of this kind of farming, many farms, which were at one time fertile and productive, are, today, too poor and unproductive to offer any inducement for anyone to own and operate them."

"There must be a permanent agriculture if people are to continue to increase in number and strength and live in a fair degree of prosperity."

Delaware Democrats Meet.

Dover, Del., Sept. 10.—The Democratic State convention assembled in this city today to decide upon candidates for presidential electors, a representative in Congress and a complete state ticket from governor down. Among those mentioned for the gubernatorial nomination are John G. Gray, Thomas N. Stayton and Thomas H. Monaghan, all of Wilmington, and Theodore of Newark. For representatives in Congress Robert G. White and Albert F. Polk, both of Georgetown, are under consideration.

POLITICAL PAMPHLET A BURDEN TO STATE

Deficit of $2,000 Will Fall Upon State Treasury—Will Issue Another Booklet Next Month.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Madison, Wis., Sept. 10.—It required an investment of over $2,000 on the part of the state in addition to the nearly $5,000 contributed by political candidates, to get the 340,000 political pamphlets to the voters of Wisconsin before the primary election law. Under a law enacted at the last session of the legislature candidates for office were permitted to appear in a campaign booklet upon a payment varying according to the office sought. In all $4,670 was collected from candidates. It required $3,400 for postage stamps to mail the pamphlets to all the voters of Wisconsin. In addition to this there was the expense of obtaining the list of voters, arranging the pamphlets, addressing the envelopes, and the cost of paper and printing. These items alone will aggregate $3000 or $4000 and the deficit is paid out of the state treasury. It has been proven that the pamphlet is not a self-supporting medium.

A pamphlet similar to the one mailed prior to the primary election will be mailed again to all voters ten days previous to election. It is expected that this booklet will be much larger than the primary one, for many of the primary election candidates had no opposition and of course did not appear in the pamphlet. Assistant secretary of state J. B. Hagler said today that the copy for the election pamphlets must be in the hands of the secretary of state not later than Sept. 20th. This will necessitate all of the candidates sending their copy to the state department within a few days after the platform convention to be held here Sept. 17.

GAYNOR TESTIFIES BEFORE COMMITTEE

Admits to Aldermanic Board He Has No System of Keeping in Touch With Police Conditions.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Sept. 10.—William J. Gaynor, mayor of New York took the witness chair at the city hall this afternoon and was sworn in by Alderman Curran to testify before the Aldermanic committee appointed to investigate graft in the police department.

"We are anxious to know at the outset," said Mr. Buckner, counsel for the committee, "how the mayor keeps in touch with conditions at the police department?"

"Mainly by letter from the commissioner," the mayor replied. "Some times he talks with me."

"Is there no special way in which you keep advised of conditions? Have you no special system?"

"No system, except what I hear through the commissioner," Mayor Gaynor replied.

DEATH DUE TO OTHER CAUSES THAN DROWNING

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

New York, Sept. 10.—Physicians who performed an autopsy today on the body of Mrs. Rosa Menschick Szabo, exhumed yesterday in a Jersey City cemetery, declared this afternoon they had found indications that the woman's death was due to causes other than drowning.

Keeps Your Stove "Always Ready for Company"

A bright, clean, glossy stove is the joy and pride of every housekeeper. But it is hard to keep a stove nice and shiny—unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used.

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It doesn't rub off or dust off. Its shine lasts four times longer than the shine of any other polish. You only need to polish one-fourth as often, yet your stove will be cleaner, brighter and better looking than it has been since you first bought it. Use on your parlor stove, kitchen stove or gas stove. Get a can from your hardware or stove dealer. If you do not find it better than any other stove polish you have ever used before, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. But we feel sure you will agree with the thousands of other up-to-date women who are now using Black Silk Stove Polish and who say it is the "best stove polish ever made."

BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH

LIQUID OR PASTE ONE QUALITY

Be sure to get the genuine. Black Silk Stove Polish costs you no more than the ordinary kind. Keep your grates, registers, fenders and stove pipes bright and free from rusting by using BLACK SILK AIR-DRYING ENAMEL. Brush it on with each use of stove polish only.

Use BLACK SILK METAL POLISH for silver, ware, nickel, tinware or brass. It works quickly, easily, and leaves a brilliant surface. It has no equal for use on automobiles.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

CLOTHES THAT HARMONIZE.

"T HAT looks like me." By that criterion one of the best dressed women I know chooses all her gowns.

What does that mean? It means that when she sees a gown or hat in a shop window, or on a form, or worn by a passerby on the street, which she realizes belongs to her own peculiar style, she is immediately interested in it, and if possible and desirable, buys it or copies it.

It means that the first and most tenacious requirement, which this woman makes of a garment is that it shall harmonize with her own appearance and personality; and the result is that, whether they are capable of analyzing the reason or not, almost every one who sees her regards her as a charmingly gowned woman.

Just how large a percentage of beauty harmony makes up, a great many people do not seem to realize.

We all know that the loveliest gown is not at all attractive if worn at the wrong time.

We do not seem to grasp that the loveliest gown is equally unlovely if worn by the wrong person.

There are gowns for each of us that bring out every bit of us—every bit of the most attractive of us—gowns out of which we shine forth suitably dressed, and hence, serene, confident and at our best; and there are other perfectly good gowns that either wholly eclipse us or bring out our worst points, or in some way or other punish us for choosing what was not in harmony with us.

Very few women confine themselves to two or three colors and yet the woman who has more than two colors that really belong to her is rare, and only a raving beauty ought to attempt the half-dozen colors which the ordinary woman ought to include in her wardrobe.

Every woman ought to know her best color and her next best, and if she cares more for beauty than variety, ought to stick to them.

I say "color." I mean something more restricted than that. I mean her exact shade. I know a girl who found out that brown was her color but did not realize for some time that there are browns as far apart as the poles. Leaf brown was her perfect color, and a bright yellow brown was as deadly to her as cerise or purple. An expensive mistake taught her this and now she realizes that it is not enough to know one's harmonious color; one must also know one's exact tone in the color scale.

Woman herself is one of the greatest works of art woman can produce. Her home and her children, to be sure, are even greater, but the lesser ought not to be entirely neglected even for these.

And if we had more women who dressed by the criterion of "that looks like me," instead of "that looks stylish" or "that looks expensive," we should certainly have more women who fulfill their highest possibilities in this direction.

Heart and Home Problems

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) I am a girl, come in and they never ask to call on me again. I sometimes go to have young men but not very often. I would like to go with them more, but they do not seem to care for my company. When they bring me home from church and entertainments I always ask them "in-but they never."

My dear girl, have you asked yourself if there is any fault in you? Are you entertaining and interesting? Are you informed on topics that interest your boy friends, so you can converse with them and listen intelligently? Are you sweet and neat and good-natured? (2) Are you silly and easily annoyed, and do you insist too much upon their keeping company with you and coming in to see you? A boy doesn't like to be forced to do anything, you know, and he's pretty finicky about the kind of girl he goes with.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—We are four chums—A, B, C and D.

A wants to know (1) what is good for the complexion, (2) for removing freckles and (3) for making eyes grow. (4) Is a good writer?

B wants to know if there is ever a chance of her getting a bear.

C wants to know where she will get a position as a stenographer.

D wants to know if there are any nice boys in Kingston and Parsons.

We want to tell our fellows to meet us. Let them mention place and time. We are all ever so content.

THE FOUR CHUMS

For A—(1) Outdoor exercise, plenty of baths and good nourishing food. (2) Buttermilk. (3) Vaseline. (4) Yes.

For B—Certainly. If you are a wholesome and agreeable girl.

For C—Write letters of application to various business houses and watch advertisements in the daily newspapers.

For D—There are nice boys in town.

I would not attempt to recommend any boys to you or to invite any of them to meet you. Nice boys and girls are introduced in the regular way, by mutual acquaintances.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) We are girls sixteen and eighteen years and are stilling fancy work for our friend. (2) Is there anything wrong in that? (3) If a gentleman takes a girl home from school, is it his place to pay the fare or should the girl pay her own fare?

TWO GIRLS.

(1) No. (2) If he asks to escort her he should pay the fare. Otherwise he is not required to do so.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) I am a girl of seventeen and engaged to a boy of eighteen. He says he loves me very much and calls me Sweetheart. Is that right? (2) Do you think it would be wise for me to get married next month? (3) Please tell me what way my hair would look the nicest, as he does not like the way I wear it. (4) Could we live on $118 a month? (5) Ought I to give up my profession? I am a piano teacher. (6) How can I take pimpler and freckles off my face? (7) How are my grammar, spelling and composition?—LILLY.

It's quite natural and proper for an engaged young man to have pet names for his fiancée. (2) You are hardly old enough to be married, and I doubt if you two children really know your own minds yet. (3) I do not know your type of face, so cannot advise you. (4) You ought to be able to live comfortably on that amount, if you are not extravagant. (5) Yes, if he is able to support you. It's bad training for a young husband to have his wife help earn the family income. (6) Bathe face with buttermilk for freckles. For pimpler: Eat well, including a great deal of vegetables, fruit, milk and water. Take outdoor exercise, breathe deep and sleep with your windows open. Bathe the face at night with warm water and a good toilet soap, then massage with cold cream, finally wiping off the cream with a clean cloth. Take at least one hot bath a week and a sponge bath every day. Keep your belongings in good condition with an occasional dose of Epsom salts. (7) Fair.

No Exaggeration.

"Speed?" retorted the demonstrator, when Jinks asked if the car was going fast. "Speed? Why, let me tell you something. If you started out in a gale of wind blowing sixty miles an hour, and goin' with it, this car's so fast it'll blow it in your face."—Harper's Weekly.

Generally.

Visitor—"How do you get along with your rival town, Bangville?" Native—"Same as all rival towns do. The Civic League in each town works from October to April promoting friendly relations between the two towns, and the first baseball game we play them undoes it."

The difficulty shows itself in the male sex, but it shows itself still more conspicuously in the female sex, where the propagation of the individual character devoted to the race, as compared to that devoted to individualism, is necessarily for the higher, and must so remain if the race is to persist.

The general program of the race culturist, or eugenicist is to improve the race by inducing young people to make a more reasonable selection of marriage mates, to fall in love intelligently. It trusts to that good sense with which the majority of people are possessed and believes that in the life of such there comes a time when they realize that they are drifting toward marriage and will stop to consider if the contemplated union will result in a healthy, mentally well endowed offspring.

Enjoying the Blues

SUE PERKINS stood looking out the office window at the rain falling on the roofs all around.

It wasn't a pleasant outlook. The office was not in a prosperous part of town, and what she saw was unkempt and neglected backyards, and attic windows with unwashed window panes abutting on dingy tin roofs, and brick walls. On all these, the rain was falling dimly, not in the soft, gentle way of spring and summer rains, but in the dogged, determined way of dreary autumn rains that knew only the commonplace and sordid.

"If I only was in an office with some sort of view, such as Jean has for instance," she thought, "so that when I do get a minute to look up from my work, I could get a bird's eye of the city, or see the river, or catch a glimpse of trees! But to work in such a hole as this! Though to be sure, the just work, work, work all the time. Other people have good times. But I never do. There's Kate gone to Europe, and May went to Bermuda this summer. And Lou's brother got a motor, and she's always more I may."

A tear trickled down her cheek.

"I don't care if I am crying," she thought, "I'm going to cry. I'm going to have just a grand spree of the blues. I'm going to think of all the hard times I have and all the good times other people have. It's the truth. There's no use trying to be an optimist with nothing to be optimistic on. You just plain lie to yourself, when you're saying everything is lovely when it isn't."

So the typewriter stood silent and she sat by the window and wept, and thought of her monotonous life and the mean clothes she had to wear, and the poor lunches she had to buy, and of how little they did for her.

She had a perfectly grand time. She thoroughly enjoyed every minute of it. And when she had cried till she got tired of crying, and thought till she was weary of the performance, she dabbed her eyes with her handkerchief and went back to her typewriter. She felt ever so much better, and life once more began to have interest.

And when her employer came in she was thumping the machine so energetically and she greeted him with such a bright smile, that he thought to himself, "What a cheery hustler she is."

A WOMAN'S OBSERVATIONS

Edna K. Wooley

tops of our voices if we wished, without a moral certainty that our remarks would certainly be our neighbors' servants and thence through the whole community.

"I wouldn't have a maid in my house for anything. I have a woman come in by the day when I need her. The rest I do myself and it's a positive joy for me to run my own business if there ever was one. And I know lots of other women now who are doing just as I do—using their brains and hands for the home, and unashamed to acknowledge it. That's why I think we're more genuine and honest than we were."

"I brought up to think that housework was a disgrace," she went on. "In my youth the woman who did her own work did it behind closed doors and lied about the sudden calling away of her servant, or how impossible it was to keep one of the independent creatures, or something of the sort. Life was one long series of makeshifts among those who couldn't afford a servant, or it was one long series of pinching economies in order to pay the wages of a 'hired girl' as we used to call a maid."

"In school we girls looked down upon any girl whose mother had to do her own work, and it was a positive disgrace to be caught washing dishes. I remember a bad siege we had in our own home. Mother wanted to help father through a time of stringency, and she let our servant go. We used to pull down the curtains and look at the doors and refuse to answer the door bell while we did the work. The washing we dried in the attic so nobody might see one of us hanging out clothes. We would have been socially ostracized if it had been found out."

"I remember how we bemoaned the fact that we couldn't find a suitable girl, and how awfully languid and ladylike we were when we received our callers. I remember, too, what agonized moments we gave to our hands and faces, so that we wouldn't show the 'coarseness' of the work we were doing."

"I think it was that experience which taught me to revolt against such snobbishness. For I discovered that I liked housework and I abhorred pretense. And it was so nice to be just by ourselves in the house, and say what we liked, without putting on any airs before a servant. We could express our sentiments at the

Household Talks

ONE peck of ripe tomatoes, washed and cut in half and cook in a porcelain kettle until the pulp is softened and the juice extracted. Strain and press through a colander and then through a fine sieve.

Return to the fire and add one ounce of salt, one-half ounce of mace, ground, one tablespoon of black pepper, one teaspoon of cayenne pepper, one tablespoon of ground cloves, one-half tablespoon of ground allspice, six tablespoons of ground mustard and one tablespoon of crushed celery seeds tied in a bag.

Boil at least five hours, stirring constantly the last four and frequently throughout the whole operation. Let stand over night in a cool place. In the morning add a pint of strong vinegar. Take out the bag of celery seed and bottle and keep in a dark place.

A recipe from Baltimore, Maryland, that has been pronounced by competent judges to be superior to all others is the following:

One bushel of firm, ripe tomatoes. Wash and cut out the cores and put in a porcelain kettle with three pints of water. Add ten small onions cut fine, boil until the tomatoes are done, which will be about two hours. Strain as directed above and return to the fire with a half gallon of strong vinegar.

Mix the dry ground spices and sugar together; one ounce of cloves, one ounce cinnamon, two ounces black pepper, two grated nutmegs, one pint salt, two pounds of light brown sugar.

This mixture will make the catsup dark in color but rich in flavor; if you like it "hot" add cayenne to suit your taste.

Boil two hours longer, stirring to prevent scorching, and when cool fill the bottles and cork and cover corks with paraffin.

An East Indian tomato sauce that is very pungent, and excellent to serve with fish, macaroni and cold meats, is found in an old book called "Domestic Economy of India."

It calls for three dozen fine, very ripe tomatoes, skinned and seeded. Work these through a sieve and boil until the water is evaporated and the whole reduced about one-half. Add three ounces of powdered ginger, five cloves of garlic or six small silver onions crushed, two wine glasses of best vinegar, two ounces of salt, a quarter of an ounce of paprika, one-half ounce of white pepper or strong curry powder.

Stir the whole bowl twenty minutes, stirring often; cool and bottle.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

THEY would tempt the dying angel to eat.

Back to the world he'd turn his fleeting soul.

And plunge his fingers in the salad bowl; Serenely full, the epithet would say: "Fate cannot harm me—I have died to-day."

A SYMPOSIUM OF SALADS.

A good meal is a good salad and bread and butter, and most people will be well satisfied with such food.

One may use what she has at hand, making simple or complex combinations. The nice thing about a salad is, it is so easy to put together. A banana or two with a few lettuce leaves and a tablespoonful of nuts, a sprinkling of salad dressing, and one has a most satisfying salad.

It is always wise to keep a jar of good salad dressing in the ice chest to call upon at all times. The French dressing of oil and vinegar is liked by almost everybody and is still easier to prepare than the cooked or mayonnaise dressings.

Melon Salad.—Take a fine melon (a musk melon), scoop out the fruit in smooth tablespoonfuls. Place in a salad bowl and sprinkle with three times as much oil as vinegar, a tablespoonful of paprika, sugar on ice and thoroughly chill.

Waldorf Salad.—Mix, together equal parts of celery and tart apple cut in uniform dice-shaped pieces, half as much, by measure, of nuts (either hickory or walnuts), and pour over any desired salad dressing.

Dale Salad.—To one pint of cooked peas add a pint of celery cut in small pieces, a cup of walnut meats and one cup of cream. Serve with mayonnaise dressing.

Crab Salad.—One-half pint of crab meat, two bunches of celery, two hard cooked eggs minced very fine, one tomato cut in slices, laid in a border of lettuce with the crab mixture in the center. Garnish with capers and serve with French dressing.

FREE TO THIN FOLKS

We Invite You to Test a New Discovery Which Does Actually Make Thin Folks Fat.

Send Today for Free 50c Box

Don't be a mere shadow of your true self. Let Sargol make Lean, lank, skinny, scrawny men and women should take advantage of this Sargol. Nothing is more embarrassing than extreme thinness.

It is the plump well-developed man who "gets the melons" and has the fun socially.

Scrawny, skinny women are seldom popular. We all admire fine figures. No dresser can hide a bony, skinny form.

Here is a chance to test the one guaranteed reliable treatment which has "made good" for years in this country. It has been taken England by storm and which has just been awarded a gold medal and diploma of honor at Brussels, Belgium.

Nothing in history has ever approached the marvelous success of this new treatment, which has made more thin folks plump than all the "tonics" and ineffective medicines for fifty years.

There is a reason. Plump, well-formed men and women assimilate what they eat. Thin, scrawny ones do not.

This new discovery supplies the one thing which thin folks lack: that is, the power to assimilate food.

It renews the vigor, re-establishes the normal, all in nature's own way. It is not a dash to jaded nerves, but a genuine stimulant.

This new discovery puts on firm, solid flesh at the rate of ten to thirty pounds a month in many cases.

Best of all—the flesh "stays put." The treatment is furnished, in connection with the Sargol, in a 50c box.

Here is the special offer for the purpose of convincing this proof in this community that these tablets will do just exactly what is claimed for them. It has been arranged to distribute for the next ten days for the coupon below, a free 50c box of Sargol.

This large 50-cent free package will be sent you in a private and perfectly plain wrapper, so that no one but yourself will know the contents. Accompanying this package will be full and complete data and directions, letters of testimony and a special letter of expert advice that in itself is well worth your time reading.

If you want to add ten, twenty or even thirty pounds of good, solid flesh to your bones, do not delay, send at once for a free 50c box of Sargol.

All time you have to do is to cut out the coupon below and send it with your name, address and ten cents to pay for distribution expenses to the Sargol Co., 243-W. Herald Bldg., Birmingham, N. Y.

MRS. GREATION'S AWFUL EXPERIENCE

During Change of Life—How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her a Well Woman.

Natick, Mass. — "I cannot express what I went through during the change of life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold, I had creepy sensations, and I could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I also had a tumor. I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish my letter."—Mrs. MARION SWEET GREATION, No. 1 Jefferson St., Natick, Mass.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E.

BELOIT HAS DARING DAYLIGHT ROBBERY

Home of Fred M. Coon Entered Sunday And $300 Worth of Jewelry Taken—Quinn House Visited.

Beloit papers of Monday report a daring daylight robbery in that city on Sunday afternoon when the home of Fred M. Coon on Bushnell street was broken into in the absence of the family and $300 worth of jewelry taken. An entrance was attempted at the residence of W. H. Quinn on Park Avenue the same afternoon but the thieves were scared away. At both places screens were torn off the windows to effect an entrance. The Line City has suffered from an epidemic of burglaries during the past few weeks and the police department has been roused to exercise every precaution.

PORTER

Porter, Sept. 10.—W. Wright of Janesville, spent Saturday and Sunday at C. W. McCarthy's.

Tom Riley was a week end visitor at the home of his sister in Janesville.

Friends and relatives in this vicinity were sorry to learn of the serious illness of Mrs. Mary Downey at Edgerton.

William Frusher spent Sunday with relatives in this vicinity.

Miss Mary J. Earle of Evansville, is spending a few days at the home of her niece, Mrs. A. Brown.

N. Riley and W. Peters are assisting R. L. Earle with his tobacco harvest.

Merle Culham and lady friend, motored from Stoughton on Sunday and spent the afternoon with friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. R. L. Earle and Miss Nell McCarthy, spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Tom Stearns.

Clarence Ellis spent Sunday with his parents, at Whitewater.

Robert Merrill is assisting O. W. McCarthy during the tobacco harvest.

Miss Mary Ludden began her school work at Footville on Monday and Miss Emma Bates her work in the Lenoau District.

Master Robert Earle departed for Janesville on Wednesday, to attend school.

LA PRAIRIE

La Prairie, Sept. 10.—The L. M. B. S. will meet at the Grange hall, Wednesday, Sept. 11. A full attendance is desired as there is important business to be transacted.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Conroy visited in Clinton Sunday.

Mrs. John Terwilliger is under the doctor's care at present.

Robert and Hugh Conway went to Sharon, Sunday morning, on the former's motorcycle.

CENTER

Center, Sept. 10.—Despite the extreme warm weather of the past week Center was very well represented at the Evansville fair.

Eli Crall and son received a large number of premiums on live stock. Tobacco harvest is in progress which seems to be of good quality, as the rush by the buyers and prices offered seem to indicate. A number of sales are reported.

The annual convention of the Christian church, which convened in Footville the latter part of the week, was largely attended by delegates from other churches as well as the local people.

Miss Florence Davis and brother, Roy, were Whitewater visitors over Sunday.

A number have been on the sick list with severe colds and sore throat.

U. Fisher is gaining very slowly. Messrs. Fisher and Goldsmith seem to be busy putting up silos.

Mrs. H. O. Barlow spent Sunday in Evansville.

The farm house on the Jacob, Wiggins' farm, in South Center, and occupied by Jervis Bemis, burned to the ground last Wednesday. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mrs. Long the aged mother of O. C. Herman and Henry Long, who after a lingering illness passed away at her home near Footville, last Thursday, was tenderly consigned to her last resting place in Bethel cemetery, Saturday afternoon. Friends of the family extend sympathy in the loss of a kind and loving mother.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES.

COFFEE.

(By Howard L. Rann.)

COFFEE is a drink taken by people who wish to sit up all night in bed and repeat the multiplication table backwards. There is nothing that will jolt the sleep out of a person's system quicker than three cups of black coffee, inhaled just before retiring.

Coffee is made in a Brazil and comes to this country in a green state. Some of this green coffee finds its way into railroad eating houses and extracts profane protests from passengers.

As a rule, however, coffee is roasted to a dull brunette finish before being shipped to the interior.

There are several ways of preparing coffee so that nobody can tell it from rain water. The favorite method is to allow it to cool until it is perfectly numb, while waiting for the cream and sugar. This kind of coffee never caused anybody to kick off the bed clothes in the effort to connect with a little snoring.

The most restless brand of coffee is that served in a dining car, as it never anticipates a reverse curve and is liable to leap into somebody's lap when he is using his napkin elsewhere. Dining car coffee is usually made of four parts lye and one part condensed milk, and will make an invalid rise up and fight the porter on the slightest provocation.

Restaurant coffee is a hardy variety which is made in a large, water-choked urn. It has never been found necessary to dilute this coffee to any extent as the principal ingredients are hot water and a spoon.

Most of the coffee now in use has to be run through a percolator, in order to subdue its proud spirit and keep it from chilling the teeth of the guests. The percolator is an ingenious $4 device which removes the caffeine from coffee and deposits it upon the center piece in a dark brown smear. Caffeine is that quality in coffee which enables people to throw off ragtime music from a self-playing piano until 3 a. m.

There are only two kinds of coffee sold—Mocha and Java. Owing to the fertility of the American inventors, both are at present as common as the genuine Havana filler, most of which comes from the delis of Wisconsin.

She and her family emigrated to the United States 1872, settling at Appleton, Wis., where her husband died in 1875. The same year she moved to the town of Center, where she lived until her death. She was of a strong and robust constitution. She began to fail about two years ago but she would not give up till about a year ago when it was found that she was suffering from Bright's disease which "haunted" her death. She was confined to her bed for the last six weeks, suffering intense pain most of the time. She passed through many hardships and trials especially in her younger days as she brought up of her four small children was left to her alone. But this only brought out more conspicuously the strength and beauty of her character. She was quiet and reserved, but was always glad to see her friends. She leaves four children: Otto, Herman and Henry of Center, and Mrs. William Lang of the town of Brooklyn, Green county. Also seven grandchildren and one sister, with whom she lived. Funeral services were held from the home, at 12 o'clock and from the Lutheran church of which she was a member, at one o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. F. W. Wenzel officiating. Pall bearers were John Roehl, Joe Busch, August Rietzke, Chris Harnack, William Sornow and Fred Nachtigal. Interment was made in Bethel cemetery.

Man's Weakness.

The weakness of man is a lesson which we learn only to forget; and the instability of human affairs is a fact too familiar to remain impressive.

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and 30 feet of tender bowels so promptly, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful. Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

Backslider from Wellville to Dingbat Town

A Slide from health to ill-health

A great many people have tried the slide, who didn't know exactly what they would get in "Dingbat-Town."

The coffee drinker is quite certain to get some kind of a "bat." It may be in stomach, liver, heart, bowels, eyes, kidneys or some other organ, for the bad effects of the caffeine in coffee, locate in a variety of different organs in different people.

Many persons who knew this some time ago quit coffee and commenced Postum.

With the curtains caught between her finger-tips, her figure bent forward and motionless, she looked out into the street as if she saw something there of absorbing interest. But she saw nothing. All her mental activity was bent on the problem of Dominick's telephone message. She did not believe it. She was in that state where trifles light as air all point one way, and to have Dominick stay out to dinner with a sudden and unexpected "friend from New York" was more than a trifle. She assured herself with slow, cold reiteration that he was dining with Rose Cannon in the big house on California Street. If they walked together on Sunday mornings, why she determined to go out. She might find some distraction in watching the passers-by and looking at the shop windows.

By the time she was dressed, it was four o'clock. The fog was thicker than ever, hanging over the city in an even, motionless pall of vapor. Its breath had a keen, penetrating chill, like that exhaled by the mouth of a cavern. Coming down the steps into it she seemed to be entering a white, still sea, off which an air came that was pleasant on the heated dryness of her face. She had no place to go to, no engagement to keep, but instinctively turned her steps in the down-town direction. Walking would pass more time than going on the car, and she started down the street which slanted to a level and then climbed a long, dim reach of hill beyond. Its emptiness—a characteristic of San Francisco streets—struck upon her observation with a sense of gripping, bleak dreariness. She would look along the two lines of sidewalk till they were lost in the gradual milky thickening of the fog, and at intervals see a figure, faint and dreamlike, either emerging from space in slow approach, or melting into it in phantasmal withdrawal.

It was a melancholy, depressing vista. She had not reached the top of the long hill before she decided that she would walk no farther. Walking was only bearable when there was something to see. But she did not know what else to do or where to go. Indecision was not usually a feature of her character. Today, however, the unaccustomed strain of temptation and worry seemed to have weakened her resourcefulness and resolution. The one point on which she felt determined was that she would not go home.

The advancing front of a car, looming suddenly through the mist, decided her. She halted it, climbed on board, and sank into a seat on the inside. There was no one else there. It smelt of dampness, of wet woollens and rubber overshoes, and its closed windows, filmed with fog, showed semicircular streaks across them where passengers had rubbed them clean to look out. The conductor, an unkempt man, with an unshaven chin and dirty collar, slouched in for her fare, extending a grimy paw toward her. As he took the money and punched the tag, he hummed a tune to himself, seeming to convey in that harmless act a slighting opinion of his passenger. Berny looked at him severely, which made him hum still louder, and lounge indifferently out to the back platform, where he leaned on the brake and spat scornfully into the street.

Berny felt that sitting there was worse than walking. There was no one to look at, there was nothing to be seen from the windows. The car dipped over the edge of an incline, slid with an even, skimming swiftness down the face of the hill, and then, with a series of small jouncings, crossed the rails of another line. Not knowing or caring where she was, she signaled the conductor to stop, and alighted. She looked round her for an uncertain moment, and then recognized the locality. She was close to the old Union Street plaza on which the Greek Church fronted. Here in the days before her marriage, when she and Hazel had been known as "the pretty Iverson girls," she had been wont to come on sunny Sunday mornings and sit on the benches with such beaux as brightened the monotony of that unsparring period.

She felt tired now and thought it would not be a bad idea to cross to the plaza and rest there for a space. She was warmly dressed and her clothes would not be hurt by the damp. Threading her way down the street, she came out on the opening where the little park lies like an unrolled green cloth round which the shabby, gray city crowds.

She sank down on the first empty bench, and looking round she saw other dark shapes, having a vague, huddled appearance, lounging in bunched-up attitude on the adjacent seats. They seemed preoccupied. It struck her that they, like herself, were plunged in meditation on matters which they had sought this damp seclusion silently to ponder. The only region of activity in the dim, still scene was where some boys were playing under the faintly-defined outline of a large willow tree. They were bending close to the ground in the performance of a game over which periods of quietness fell to be broken by sudden disrupting cries. As Berny took her seat their implike shapes dark and without detail, danced about under the tree in what appeared a fantastic ecstasy, while their cries broke through the woolly thickness of the air with an intimate clearness strangely at variance with the remote effect of their figures.

The fact that no one noticed her, or could clearly see her, affected her as it seemed to have done the other occupants of the benches. She relaxed from her alert sprightliness of pose, and sank against the back of the seat in the limps of unobserved indifference. Sitting thus, her eyes on the ground, she heard, at first unheeding, then with a growing sense of attention, footsteps approaching on the gravel walk. They were the short, quick footsteps of a woman. Berny looked up and saw a woman, a little darker than the atmosphere, emerging from the surrounding grayness, as if she were slowly rising to the surface through water.

Her form detached itself gradually from the fog, the effect of deliberation being due to the fact that she was dressed in gray, a long, loose coat and a round hat with a film of veil about it. She would have been a study in monochrome but, for the color in the cheek turned to Berny, a glowing, rose-tinted cheek into which the damp had called a pink brighter than any rouge. Berny looked at it with reluctant admiration, and the woman turned and presented her full face, blooming as a flower, to the watcher's eye. It was Rose Cannon.

If in these wan and dripping surroundings the young girl had not looked so freshly fair and comely, Berny might have let her pass unchecked. But upon the elder woman's sore and bitter mood the vision of this rosy youthfulness, triumphant where all the rest of the world sank unprotesting under the weight of a common ugliness, came with a sense of unbearable wrong and grievance. As Rose passed, Berny, with a sudden blinding up-rush of excitement, leaned forward and rose.

"Miss Cannon," she said loudly. "Oh, Miss Cannon—just a moment."

Rose turned quickly, looking inquiringly at the owner of the voice. She had had a vague impression of a figure on the bench but had not looked at it. Now, though the face she saw was unfamiliar, she smiled and said: "Did you want to speak to me?"

The ingratiating amiability of her expression added to Berny's swelling sense of injury and injustice. Thus did this siren smile upon Dominick, and it was a smile that was very sweet. The excitement that had seized upon the older woman made her tremble, but she was glad, fiercely, burning glad, that she had stopped Miss Cannon.

"Yes," she said, "just for a moment, if you don't mind."

Rose had never seen the woman before, and at the first glance supposed her to be some form of peddler or a person selling tickets. The daughter of Bill Cannon was eagerly sought by members of her own sex who had wares for sale, and it did not strike her as odd that she should be stopped in the plaza on a foggy afternoon. But a second glance showed her that the woman before her was better dressed, more assured in manner than the female vender, and she felt puzzled and interested.

"You had something to say to me?" she queried again, the questioning infection a little more marked.

"Yes, but not much. I won't keep you more than a few moments. Won't you sit down?"

Berny designated the bench and they sat on it, a space between them. Rose sat forward on the edge of the seat, looking at the strange woman whose business with her she could not guess.

Denver, Colo., Sept. 10.—The forty-third annual convention of the Master Car and Locomotive Painters' Association of the United States and Canada was opened in Denver today with an attendance of members representing the leading railroads of America.

Benefited Many Who Had Tuberculosis

Those who suffer from Consumption are generally troubled with night sweats, fever, loss of strength and little or no appetite. Fresh air, good food, and the proper care of the body are essential to a recovery, but in many cases something else is needed. Eckman's Alternative is a medicine which has been most successful in stopping night sweats, reducing fever and promoting appetite, and many who have used it, declare it saved their lives. Investigate what it did in this case.

"Gentlemen: For four years I was troubled with cough, which gradually became worse; I had night sweats and pains in my chest. I was losing my appetite and had become so thin and weak I could not attend to my household duties. A physician pronounced my case Consumption. Not being satisfied, I was examined by the physicians of the Poly-clinic Hospital. They also pronounced the disease Consumption, which was proven later by an examination of sputum, as Tuberculosis Bacilli were found. I was ordered to a Consumptive Hospital. My mother would not allow me to go until I had tried Eckman's Alternative. Before I had taken the medicine three weeks I had marked relief, night sweats ceased, pain in the breast subsided, cough became less and easy, fever left me and I commenced getting well. My health became normal. I am in excellent health now and have been completely cured for many years. I strongly recommend it."

Care Ed. Green, 1722 S. 17th St., Phila., Pa. Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists and Smith Drug Co., McKee & Buss, Peoples Drug Co., in Janesville.

The convention will continue three days and will be devoted almost entirely to the discussion of technical subjects.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Sept. 10, 1872.—Pleasant Music.—That was a well entertained party which assembled at Clark's and Gookin's establishment, last night and listened to the excellent music of the colored band of performers which has been organized in our city. Thomson as a vocalist, Anderson and Dawson, as violinists, Mason, at the guitar and Anderson, Jr., with the double bass have often delighted the senses of our citizens by their night serenades. They are masters of the art. W. P. C. Vanvorsthuysen, a German mass singer, officiated at the organ last night and favored the party with a few of his ponderous songs. He has a voice of remarkable strength and depth.

Convention.—The joint convention for the nomination of a republican candidate for state senator and for the candidates for the county offices, will be held at the court house tomorrow noon. This will be an exciting convention, as most of the towns and cities have candidates to offer.
The Shooting Tournament.—Known has fairly inaugurated his shooting tournament at Richard's bowling alley and the crack of his rifles is heard far into the night. He offers a couple of valuable prizes to the best shots and nearly all the pigeon shooters are going in for them.

IF THIS IS YOUR BIRTHDAY?
Some loss or disappointment threatens you, but the sadness caused by this will be soon overcome. Avoid risks, and especially the risk of losing a friend through saying something unkind.
These born today will be fond of company and liked by many, but constant to none. A feeling of unrest will prevent them from acquiring wealth, and although capable of really accomplishments, their lives will be given to change and excitement.

There Was a Reason.
"It's all very well for you to preach economy," said his wife, "but I notice whenever I cut down expenses that you smoke better cigars and spend more money for your own pleasure than at any other time." "Well, confound it! What do you suppose I want you to economize for, anyway?"

Mrs. Bird: If I ever see you in this condition again I'll get a divorce!

"Though luck be on the bum, wear a brave front. What though disasters come? Wear a brave front. Say stoutly: 'I won't whine, throw spasms or rapine; I'll have no grouch in mine!' Wear a brave front. Though life's a toilsome climb, wear a brave front; all griefs will end in time—wear a brave front; though other pilgrims stop, of all their woes to yawp, strive and you'll reach the top—wear a brave front. Bad luck must leave at last; wear a brave front; troubles will soon be past; wear a brave front; fate is a mean old hag, but she will cease to nag men who don't chew the rag; wear a brave front.

W. A. Smith, Bridgeton, Ind., is telling his friends and neighbors of his return to health and strength by the use of Foley Kidney Pills, and he says he wants others to benefit also. "I was so crippled with rheumatism I could not dress without help, and had kidney trouble for years. I started using Foley Kidney Pills and now all my trouble has left me and I do not feel that I ever had rheumatism. I rest well all night and though 53 years old, can now do the work of a man of 35 years. I would like to be the means of others getting benefit from Foley Kidney Pills."—Badger
